

WORKSHOP #2 - MAPPING YOUR NETWORK

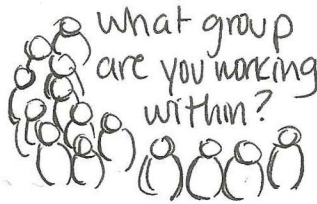

with Steve Williams, April 21st, 2015

[What policy change do you hope to bring about? Who is involved?]

Policy Windows & Agenda Setting

Coalition & Advocacy

Policy Communities as belief systems

You don't have to influence the policy all on your own!

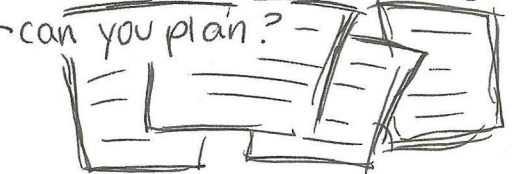

→ where do you fit?

→ how many coalitions do you fit within?

most groups don't work independently!

BE AWARE of those windows of opportunities

how can you prepare for this?

What do we actually mean by policy influence?

what are the different ways to influence research?

BROADENING POLICY HORIZONS

EXPANDING POLICY CAPACITIES

AFFECTING POLICY REGIMES

Developing trust, access,

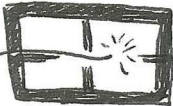

What are policy makers THINKING!

So that you can ask the right questions!

when they do, these windows can open up!

→ You need to understand this to influence policy.

Policy Windows & critical junctures

ex) Electric car

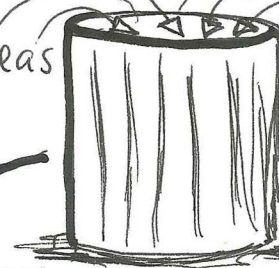

many things need to align!

ie. charging stations, batteries, renewable electricity

what does your window look like?

GARBAGE CAN THEORY

ideas

We just put ideas in, store them and sometimes something comes from that!

There can be an element of randomness!

When looking at your network...
